

The 10th November is World Human Rights Day reminds us all of the importance to uphold human rights and address issues relating to tolerance & respect.

Join us this November for a series of engaging online (via MS Teams) Lunch & Learn sessions that provide an opportunity to raise awareness & inform on a range of issues affecting the cohesiveness & resilience of our communities. These are free & open to all teams who operate directly with W&F communities

Who & What are the Extreme Right Wing (ERW)? Monday 10 Nov- 12:00 – 13:00

The ERW are gaining traction on a global, national, regional & local level. Claire Little the NW Prevent Lead from the Dept of Education will provide some detail on who the ERW are and how they operate. Join Here

On-line gaming & Extremism

Tuesday 11 Nov - 12:00 – 13:00

Jennie Fisher the London Prevent lead from the Dept of Education will provide an insight into gaming adjacent platforms, gamification, game mods, and bespoke games and their impact on radicalisation among young people. Join Here

3D Printed Weapons

Wednesday 12 Nov- 12:00 – 13:00

Heather Dawes from the Home Office will provide a session on 3D printers and their use by extremists, or violence fixated individuals to make viable weapons. Join Here

The importance of trusting relationships

Thursday 13 Nov 2025 - 12:00 – 13:00

Declan Sammin from Liverpool City Council recounts the Southport tragedy & the lessons he learned about fostering positive and trusting relationships with the local community. Join Here

Asylum Seekers & Refugees – Myths V Reality

Friday 14 Nov- 12:00 – 13:00

Join Abdulsalam Dallal, Asylum Lead Officer for Westmorland & Furness Council for a factual, discussion- based session about the asylum process in England. Join Here

Please note attendees do not need to register, however, if anyone requires further information please contact : robert.grigorjevs@westmorlandandfurness.gov.uk

